Accounting currency: The accompanying separate financial statements are expressed in Vietnam Dong (VND).

3. ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND SYSTEM

Accounting System

The Company applied to Vietnamese Accounting System promulgated under Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC dated 27th October 2025 issued by the Ministry of Finance, therefore, the information and figures presented in the financial statements are comparable.

Statements for the compliance with Accounting Standards and System

The Board of General Directors ensures to follow all the requirements of the Vietnamese Accounting Standards and System, which were issued to guide the preparation and presentation of the Financial Statements.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are the main accounting policies applied by the Corporation in preparing separate financial statements:

Basis of preparation of the separate financial statements

The attached separate financial statements are expressed in Vietnamese Dong (VND) under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Accounting System and legal regulations relevant to the preparation and presentation of separate financial statements.

The accompanying separate financial statements are the Company's ones, therefore, they do not include the financial statements of subsidiaries. Users of the separate financial statements should read them together with the Company's consolidated financial statements to obtain full information of the Company's financial position as well as the results of operations and cash flows during the year.

The accompanying financial statements are not intended to present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries other than Vietnam.

Accounting estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards requires the Board of General Directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of liabilities, assets and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the fiscal year. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Financial instruments

Initial recognition

Financial assets: At the date of initial recognition, financial assets are recognised at cost plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets. Financial assets of the Company comprise cash, cash equivalents, trade and other receivables, deposits and financial investments.

Financial liabilities: At the date of initial recognition financial liabilities are recognised at cost plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issue of the financial liabilities. Financial liabilities of the Company comprise trade and other payables, accrued expenses, obligations under finance leases and borrowings.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FORM B09a-DN

These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements

Subsequent measurement after initial recognition

Currently, there are no requirements for the subsequent measurement of the financial instruments after initial recognition.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand, bank deposits.

Cash equivalents comprise short-term deposits and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of less than 3 months that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Financial investments

Trading securities

Trading securities are those held by the Company for trading purposes. Trading securities are initially recognized at cost which include fair value of the payment made at the time of transaction plus any directly attributable transaction cost.

Trading securities are initially recognized at cost, equivalent to the payment amount at the time the transaction occurs. Transaction costs related to the purchase of trading securities are recognized as financial expenses in the year.

Trading securities are recognized when the Company has ownership rights, specifically as follows:

- Listed securities are recognized at the matching order time (T+0);
- Unlisted securities are recognized at the time of officially having ownership rights in accordance with the law.

Provision for impairment of trading securities is made in accordance with current accounting regulations.

The cost of trading securities is determined using the weighted average method.

Held to maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments include investments that the Company has the intent and ability to hold until maturity. Held-to-maturity investments include: bank deposits with original terms of over 3 months, loans held to maturity for the purpose of collecting periodic interest, and other held-to-maturity investments.

Held-to-maturity investments are recognized starting from the date of purchase and are initially measured at purchase price plus transaction costs related to the purchase of the investments. Interest income from held-to-maturity investments after the purchase date is recognized in the Income Statement on an accrual basis. Interest earned before the Company's holding period is deducted from the principal at the time of purchase.

Allowance for bad debts of held-to-maturity investments is made in conformity with current accounting regulations.

Investments in subsidiaries, associates and other investments

Investments in subsidiaries over which the Company has control, investments in associates and joint ventures over which the Company has significant influence are stated at cost method in the separate financial statements.

Profit distributions that Company received from the accumulated profits of the subsidiaries after the Company obtains control right are recognized in income statement. Other distributions are considered a recovery of investment and are deducted to the investment value.

Profit distributions that Company received from the accumulated profits of the associates after the Company obtains control right are recognized in separate income statement. Other distributions are considered a recovery of investment and are deducted to the investment value.

Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates and other investments are presented at cost less allowance for diminution in value (if any) in the financial position.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FORM B09a-DN

These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements

Other investments are recorded at cost, including purchase price plus directly attributable acquisition costs. After the initial recognition, these investments are measured at cost less allowance for diminution in value of investments.

Allowance for loss of investments

Allowance for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates, and other entities are made when the investee company incurs losses or the investment in other entities decreases in value, potentially leading to a capital loss for the Company.

The loss of the investee company used as the basis for making provisions is the consolidated financial statement if the investee is a parent company. If the investee company is an independent enterprise without subsidiaries, the basis for making provisions is the financial statement of that invested enterprise."

Receivables

The receivables comprise the customer receivables and other receivables. Receivables are recognized at the carrying amounts less allowances for doubtful debts.

Allowance for doubtful debts is assessed and made for overdue receivables that are difficult to be collected, or the debtor is unable to pay due to dissolution, bankruptcy or similar difficulties.

Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost of inventories comprise costs of direct materials, direct labor, and general operation (if any) incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and conditions. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventory items less all estimated costs of completion and costs of marketing, selling and distribution

The value of inventory is determined using the weighted average cost method.

Inventory is accounted for using the periodic inventory system.

The Company's allowance for impairment of inventories is made when there is reliable evidence of impairment of the net realizable value compared to the history cost of inventories.

Tangible fixed assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are stated at history cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical costs of tangible fixed assets include all the expenses paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

	2026 Years
Machinery and equipment	8
Office equipment	3
Others	3

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the year.

- Other payables reflect payables of non-commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase, sales of goods or provisions of services.

Accrued expenses

Actual expenses not yet paid but deducted in advance from production and business expenses in the period to ensure that when actual expenses arise, they do not cause sudden changes in production and business expenses on the basis of ensuring the principle of matching between revenue and expenses.

Deferred revenues

Deferred revenue includes: advance receipts (e.g., prepayments from customers over multiple accounting periods for leased assets, infrastructure); excluding: advances from customers for which the Company has not provided products, goods, or services; uncollected revenue from leasing assets, providing services over multiple periods.

Deferred revenues is allocated using the straight-line method based on the number of periods in which payment has been collected in advance.

Loans and finance lease liabilities

Loans and finance lease liabilities include loans, financial leases, excluding loans in the form of bonds or preference shares with terms that the issuer is required to repurchase at a certain point in the future.

The Company monitors loan amounts and financial liabilities in details by each type and classifies them into short-term and long-term according to repayment term.

Expenses directly related to the loan are recognized to financial expenses, except for expenses incurred from a separate loan for investment, construction or production in progress, which are capitalized according to Accounting Standard "Borrowing costs".

Recognition and capitalization of Borrowing costs

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the Income statement when incurring, except for the borrowing cost capitalized under Vietnamese Accounting Standards "Borrowing cost".

Owners' equity

Capital is recorded according to the actual amounts invested by owner.

Capital surplus is recorded in accordance with the difference between the issuance price and face value upon the IPO, additional issue, or the difference between the re-issuance price and carrying value of treasury shares and the equity component of convertible bonds upon maturity date. Expenses directly related to the additional issue of shares and the re-issuance of treasury shares.

Undistributed profits are determined on the basis of business results after corporate income tax and profit distribution.

The post-tax profit of the Company is distributed as dividends to shareholders after being approved by the Shareholders' Council at the Annual General Meeting of the Company and after provisions have been made for reserves as stipulated in the Company's Charter.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FORM B09a-DN

These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements

Dividends are recognized as accounts payable when approved by the Shareholders' Council.

Revenue and other income

Revenue from sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods shall be recognized when it satisfies all the five (5) conditions below:

- (a) The Company has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and reward of ownership of the goods;
- (b) The Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- (c) The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- (d) It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company; and
- (e) Costs related to transactions can be determined.

Revenue from services

Revenue from services is recognized when the outcome of that transaction can be reliably determined. Where a transaction involving the rendering of services is attributable to several periods, revenue is recognized in the year by reference to the percentage of completion of the transaction at the financial position date of that period. The outcome of a transaction can be measured reliably when all four (4) following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- (b) It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
- (c) Identify the completed work as at the financial position date; and
- (d) Determine the costs incurred for the transaction as well as the cost to complete the transaction to provide that service.

Revenue from real estate

The Company's revenue from sale of real estate is recognized when it satisfies all following conditions:

- (a) The real estate is totally completed and handed over to the buyer. The Company has transferred the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the real estate to the buyer.
- (b) The Company does not retain managerial right over the real estate as the owners or control involvement with the real estate.
- (c) The amount of revenue can be measured reliably.
- (d) It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company.
- (e) The costs incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

Construction revenue

When the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably:

- For construction contracts stipulating that the contractor is paid according to the planned schedule, revenue and expenses related to the contract are recognized in proportion to the completed work as determined by the Company on the accounting period end date.
- For construction contracts stipulating that the contractor is paid based on the value of the work performed, revenue and expenses related to the contract are recognized in proportion to the completed work as confirmed by the customer and reflected on the issued invoice.

Increases or decreases in construction volume, compensation claims, and other income are only recognized as revenue when agreed upon with the customer.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FORM B09a-DN

These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements

When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably:

- Revenue is only recognized to the extent of contract costs incurred that are likely to be recoverable.
- Contract costs are recognized as expenses when incurred.

The difference between the cumulative revenue recognized for a construction contract and the cumulative amount stated on the invoice for payment according to the planned schedule of the contract is recognized as an amount receivable from or payable to the planned schedule of construction contracts.

Revenue from operating lease of assets

Revenue from operating leases of assets is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Lease payments received in advance for multiple periods are allocated to revenue in accordance with the lease term.

Revenue from interest, dividends and profit sharing, and other income

Revenue is recognized when the Company has the ability to receive economic benefits from the activity and it is reliably determinable.

Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold or services rendered including the cost of products, goods, services, investment property, production cost of construction products sold during the period is recorded corresponding to revenue of the period. For cost which is over the normal level of inventories is recorded directly into the cost of goods sold.

Financial expenses

Financial expenses reflect the costs incurred during the period, mainly including borrowing costs, joint venture and association capital contribution costs, losses from short-term securities transfers, securities sales transaction costs; Provision for diminution in value of marketable securities, provision for investment losses in other entities, losses incurred from the sale of foreign currencies, and exchange rate losses.

Current corporate income tax expense

Corporate income tax expenses (or corporate income tax income): is total current and deferred income tax expenses (or total current and deferred tax) in determining profit or loss of a period.

Current income tax expenses: are corporate income tax payable calculated on taxable profit during the year and current corporate income tax rate. Current income tax is calculated on taxable income and applicable tax rate during the tax period. Difference between taxable income and accounting profit is from adjustment of differences between accounting profit and taxable income in accordance with current tax policies.

The Company has an obligation to pay corporate income tax at the rate of 20% on taxable profits.

The determination of the Company's income tax is based on current tax regulations. However, these regulations change from time to time and the final determination of corporate income tax depends on the examination results of the competent tax authorities.

Related parties

A party is considered a related party of the Company in case that party is able to control the Company or to cause material effects on the financial decisions as well as the operations of the Company. A party is also considered a related party of the Corporation in case that party is under the same control or is subject to the same material effects.

When considering the relationship of related parties, the nature of relationship is focused more than its legal form.

25. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Capital risk management

The Company manages its capital to ensure that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Company consists of net debt (borrowings, offset by cash and cash equivalents) and shareholders' equity (comprising capital, reserves and retained earnings).

Significant accounting policies

Details of the significant accounting policies and methods adopted (including the criteria for recognition, the bases of measurement, and the bases for recognition of income and expenses) for each class of financial asset and financial liability are disclosed in Note 4.

The Company has not assessed [has not determined] fair value of its financial assets and liabilities as at the financial position date since there are no comprehensive guidance under Circular No. 210/2009/TT-BTC issued by the Ministry of Finance on 06 November 2009 ("Circular 210") and other relevant prevailing regulations to determine fair value of these financial assets and liabilities. While Circular 210 refers to the application of International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") on presentation and disclosures of financial instruments, it did not adopt the equivalent guidance for the recognition and measurement of financial instruments, including application of fair value, in accordance with IFRS.

Financial risk management objectives

The Company has set up risk management system to identify and assess the risks exposed by the Company and designed control policies and procedures to manage those risks at an acceptable level. Risk management system is reviewed on a regular basis to reflect changes in market conditions and the Company's operations.

Financial risks include market risk (including interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

Market risk

The Company's activities expose it primarily to the financial risks of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates and prices. The Company does not hedge these risk exposures due to the lack of active market for the trading activities of financial instruments.

Interest rate risk management

The Company has significant interest rate risks arising from interest bearing loans which are arranged. The risk is managed by the Company by maintaining an appropriate level of borrowings and analysing market competition to enjoy favourable interest rates from appropriate lenders.

Share price risk management

The Company is exposed to equity price risks arising from investments in subsidiaries and associates. The Company's Board of Management assesses and approves decisions on investments in subsidiaries and associates such as operating industry, investees, etc. Investments in subsidiaries and associates are held for long-term strategic investments rather than trading purposes. The Company does not have intention to trade these investments in the foreseeable future.

Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Company. The Company has a credit policy in place and the exposure to credit risk is monitored on an on-going basis. The Company does not have any significant credit risk exposure to any counterparty because receivables consist of a large number of customers, spread across diverse industries and geographical areas.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FORM B09a-DN

These notes are an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements

Liquidity risk management

The purpose of liquidity risk management is to ensure the availability of funds to meet present and future financial obligations. Liquidity is also managed by ensuring that the excess of maturing liabilities over maturing assets in any period is kept to manageable levels relative to the amount of funds that the Company believes can generate within that period. The Company policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that the Company maintains sufficient reserves of cash, borrowings and adequate committed funding from its shareholders to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The following table details the Company's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial assets and financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial assets and undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Company can be required to pay. The inclusion of information on non-derivative financial assets is necessary in order to understand the Company's liquidity risk management as the liquidity is managed on a net asset and liability basis.
